

Los Angeles Times

OUT AND ABOUT

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2006

Looking for Love in All the Right Places

The spots to hit for an adult atmosphere

by SHAENA ENGLE

For many single Southern Californians over 50, a loud, trendy bar full of aspiring actors decked out in $200 skinny jeans, miniskirts and midriff-baring apparel makes for one frightening and uncomfortable environment in which to look for love.

Fortunately, today's singles market is much like a modern supermarket: Your choices for looking for a mate in the 21st century include going the traditional route (face-to-face meetings at parties, bars and with speed dating) or taking part in internet dating services. If you believe that a mouse might not be the perfect matchmaker for you, here are some great places in the Southland "meet" market:

